

Testing/Measurement Professional

Small credentialing company seeks Masters/Doctoral level in psychology/measurement/education or related area. Psychometric experience preferred. Permanent position includes leading test development activities with client committees and all aspects of test construction and item editing. Knowledge of equating and other current statistical methods preferred. Candidate must possess good interpersonal and writing skills. Travel required. Email resume and salary requirements to jrooney@ptcny.com